

Advantage Adoptions

One Church One Child

6833 Dan Danciger Road | Fort Worth, TX 76133 | PH: 682-708-7375 | F: 817-769-8454

WEAPONS, FIREARMS, EXPLOSIVE MATERIALS & PROJECTILES AGREEMENT

Adoptive Home:	Date:
-----------------------	--------------

Weapons include, but are not limited to:

- A. Firearms - Handguns, rifles, carbines, shotguns, pellet guns, BB guns, starter pistols, and other firearms.
- B. Explosive Materials – Gun powder, bullets, shotgun shells, ammunition, primer caps, detonators, fuse cords, and other forms of explosive material.
- C. Projectiles - Fishing spears, scuba swords, large knives, large animal traps, swords, bows, steel tipped arrows, and other forms of projectiles.
- D. OCOC does not allow Adoptive Parents to transport a child in a vehicle where a handgun is present unless the handgun has been issued to the caregiver as part of that person’s employment as a law enforcement officer.
- E. OCOC does allow Adoptive Parents to transport a child in a vehicle where firearms (not handguns), other weapons, explosive materials, or projectiles are present if:
 - 1. All firearms are not loaded; and
 - 2. The firearms, other weapons, explosive materials, or projectiles are inaccessible to the child(ren).

Any Adoptive Parent violating this policy will be subject to the immediate closure of the home.

- I do not have weapons, firearms, explosive materials, or projectiles in my home.
- I do have weapons, firearms, explosive materials, or projectiles in my home and I fully comply with the All Child and Family Services policy and procedure and TDFPS minimum standards pertaining to weapons and firearms.

Type of Weapon	Location and How Secured
1.
2.
3.
4.

By signing this agreement, I understand that if at any point a weapon, firearm, explosive material, or projectile is stored in my home, I must contact OCOC prior to the item being stored and must be in full compliance with the policy and procedure and minimum standards.

_____	_____	_____	_____
Adoptive Parent	Date	Adoptive Parent	Date